

Architecture and Health – a symposium

Thursday 29 April 2010, 2pm-6pm, Drewe Lecture Theatre,
Charing Cross Hospital, Hammersmith W6 8RF

Chair: Sunand Prasad

2.00 Sunand Prasad Chair's introduction

Architecture in hospitals

2.05 Charles Jencks The Architecture of Hope:
A multiple metaphor

2.25 Cor Wagenaar Why architecture matters:
The case for quality design in health care

2.55 Edwin Heathcote The Hospital in the City

3.15 Questions

3.20 Break

Trends and the future

3.40 Professor Jonathon Gray Joining up cancer and genetics – patient centred care

4.00 Professor Bob Leonard How cancer treatment is changing and what this means for patients

4.20 Professor Ken Worpole A house at the end of life:
Embodying hope in hospice design

4.40 Laura Lee Maggie's: A movement of caring?

5.00 Questions

5.05 Break

The Architects speak

5.15 Sir Michael Hopkins Designing a healthy hospital

5.35 Rem Koolhaas "A modest, humane building, which will encourage and not intimidate": bringing a Maggie's Centre to life

5.55 Questions and summing up by Chair